

The Prayer Cottage

Walking the path to greater intimacy with Christ in prayer.

Restoration Pool

To get close to God requires letting go of my fears. Persevering trials are necessary to knowing God better. I can't get close to God with unconfessed sin in my heart.

John 16:33

Grace Room

Nothing I can do will justify what God does for me. By His grace He allows our relationship to exist.

Ephesians 2:8-9

Examination Room

As God has forgiven my sins, I too must forgive others of their sins against me.

Matthew 6:14-15

Shadow of Death

In this dark world trusting in God can sometimes be difficult, but doing so will lead to seeing beauty I won't see without trusting Him. It also leads to a feeling of contentment and no more fear.

Psalms 16:8-11

Courtyard

I don't have to live with guilt or shame because of my sin; God's grace gives me freedom from both.

John 7:37-38

Valley of Abundance

I have to trust the Lord will always meet my needs, but on His time and not mine. I also need to realize that He knows my needs better than I do.

Psalms 23:1

Sacred Garden

A life in Christ is a life of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

Galatians 5:22-23

Perspective Place

When I become more like Christ I can better relate and deal with those who are different than me.

John 15:12

Intercession Bench

God loves to hear me pray for the needs of others. This shows Him I'm not self-centered, and trust my own needs to Him.

Philippians 2:3-4

Meditation Rock

God's Word, if I seek it, will provide understanding in how to live my life and who God is and what He wants me to do with my life.

Proverbs 2:3-6
