13. One Story, Two Testaments

Andrew Spradlin
Valley Baptist

a. February 22nd

Biblical Theology

Objective: To understand how the New Testament fulfills the promise of the Old Testament and how the Old Testament is critical for rightly reading the New Testament.

After his resurrection, Jesus accompanied two of his disciples on the road to Emmaus. As they traveled together, “beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he interpreted to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself (Luke 24:27)”. The Old Testament gives foundational revelation about core truths that the New Testament writers draw upon to understand their new life in Christ and to proclaim the good news of the kingdom throughout their world.

14. How to read the Bible:

Rocky Fleming

Reading for relationship, not information    Influencers/Arkansas

a. March 8th

Spiritual Formation

Objective: To discover and practice reading the Bible to hear the Lord’s voice.

All our lives we have learned to read material to master content, gain information, and know how to use the material goods at our disposal to make things happen. When we open the Bible, we are to read in a dramatically different way. When we read the Bible, we are not in charge, the Lord is. Our task is to hear his voice and respond faithfully.

15. Divorce

Roger Spradlin
Valley Baptist

a. March 22nd

16. The Church: Who are we in Christ, anyway?

a. April 15th

Systematic Theology

Eric Burns
Laurelglen Bible

Objective: To understand the role of the church in God's plan saving restoration.

Paul prays a powerful prayer in the first chapter of Ephesians. In short, he prays that we might understand the power God wants to pour through us that we might be, and here is the mind-blowing part, nothing less that "the fulness of him who fills all in all (Ephesians 1:23)". Jesus did not save us to go to heaven when we die, but rather to be his active presence at work in the world today.

17. Homosexuality

a. April 19th

Spiritual Formation

Roger Spradlin

Objective: To hear God's word speak to us so we can learn how to hate what God hates and love what God loves.

18. Together Effect

a. May 3rd

Spiritual Formation

Kyle Phillips
Grace Fellowship

Objective: To challenge the belief that our life of faith is individualistic, when in actuality scripture calls us to be together. "All of you together are Christ's body" (I Corinthians 12:27).

"For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there I am in the midst of them" (Matthew 18:20).

"Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together" (Hebrews 10:25).

"That together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ" (Romans 15:6).
